

PROMOTION AND NEW CUSTOMER SERVICE DIRECTOR AT INTERSTATE INTERNATIONAL

Interstate International has promoted Lisa Herbig to director of its international government services group. In her new role, Herbig will be responsible for client support and operational oversight of all military and civilian agency household goods and cargo/project shipments for the US Government.

A veteran of 19 years in the industry, she previously served as her firm's manager of international forwarding.

Lisa Herbig and David Hackett

David Hackett has joined Interstate International, Inc. as director of international commercial customer service. Hackett has a long and successful track record in the shipping and relocation industries, and will provide oversight of the company's global network of partners servicing Interstate's growing commercial client requirements worldwide.

Alexandros Kotsonis

NEW ROLE FOR CELEBRITY'S KOTSONIS

Alexandros Kotsonis has taken on a new role at Celebrity International Movers in Greece. Kotsonis was recently promoted from operations co-ordinator to road and airfreight operations manager.

Although he has more than 12 years' experience working at firms in both England and Greece, this is the first time Kotsonis will be working specifically in the household goods market.

New general manager for Noble Mobility

In the Netherlands, Naud Wirtz has been appointed general manager of the Noble Mobility Group. This puts him at the head of several respected and renowned Dutch removal/move management companies, such as KHZ Movers, Royal de Gruijter, Meyer Moving (Caribbean) and Passies Moving. He has been affiliated with the company since June 2012.

Before this Wirtz served in the Royal Dutch Navy, reaching the rank of lieutenant commander. Since then, he has held several senior management positions, working either as a consultant or as an interim manager.

